

CLIMATE CHANGE: EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE IN LEADERSHIP

Building on the work done in previous annual conferences, this first jointly planned conference will cover key themes for leadership in special education settings. It offers a time to spend with colleagues both professionally and socially.

Programme will include:

THURSDAY 15TH MARCH - Arrivals from 1p.m. Conference opens at 2 p.m.

Dr Tina Rae, Academic Tutor, University of East London, introduces the conference theme

Janet Thompson HMI, National Advisor for SEND, Ofsted - “The New Framework”

TEACH MEET – a forum for delegates to explain and share current initiatives and ideas

Conference Annual Dinner followed by Quiz Night.

FRIDAY 16TH MARCH – sessions start at 9 a.m.

Dr Tina Rae “Emotionally Literate Leadership”

Professor Barry Carpenter OBE “New Generation Leadership”

Three 30 minute Workshops, delegates can attend each one.

Dr Tina Rae - Emotional literacy for staff and students; a practical workshop

Professor Barry Carpenter – New Generation Children: routes into effective learning

Steve Watt (The Grange School) – Nurturing social and emotional learning

Venue: Robinson Executive Centre, Wyboston Lakes Conference Centre, Wyboston, MK443AL

Booking now open – see separate booking form and instructions

FLSE – www.flse.org.uk

Engage – www.engageintheirfuture.org